From the Office of President Holan:

On Thursday March 25th Walter Flinn, Chairman of our Board of Trustees and James Fammond Chancellor, will visit our campus. (This date is a postponement of the originally planned date of February 19).

We expect our visitors to spend at least a half day on campus to allow time for discussions on campus planning as well as for an open assembly meeting in the auditorium in the 12.00 2.00 P.M. period.

Please reserve that day on your calendars for meeting with our visitors. A more detailed schedule and agenda will be developed before the meeting date.

From O. T. Bacote Jr., Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds On February 9, 1976 a new security system was implemented at the Fullerton Building. It will be necessary for all persons to present a valid Mass. College of Art identification card to gain admittance to the building.

Students faculty, and staff may obtain valid I.D. cards from the Media Services Office which is located opposite Room A-4 in the Longwood Building basement. There is no charge for faculty and staff, nor for students who have not had an I.D. card in the past. There is a $1.00 charge for students who need a replacement I.D. All present I.D. cards with an expiration date of 1976 or later are still valid

A note from James J. Farragher, Manager, Watts Security Systems:

On February 9, 1976, Watts Security Systems, Inc., assumed the security functions at Longwood building as well as the Fullerton Building.

Watts Security Systems. Inc. wishes to extend their qualification and experience in the security field to the faculty, staff and students, in order to insure peace of mind personal safety, as well as the protection of personal property in this endeavor.

We invite all of you to participate in this program. Please feel free to contact Watts Fecurity through your college Superintendent on any problems.

Copies of the Report of the Salary Fourity Committee of the State Colleges System are available at the College library circulation desk.

This committee has been meeting to study and make recommendations on faculty salaries. Massachusetts College of Art representatives are Dr. Morton Godine. Floyd Covert and Arline Reardon. The report will be submitted to the Board of Trustees for consideration at the March meeting.

Faculty comments on the report should be given to one of the committee members by February 20.

The plan is designed to correct inequities which occurred at the entry level and through an uneven distribution of merit increases.

Headliners:

Arthur Corsini was one of the judges for the 1976 Massachusetts Regional Scholastic Art Avards sponsored by the Boston Globe. Avard winning works will be on view in the Prudential Tower Lobby through February 28.

Lila Chalpin attended the Regional Assembly Meetings of the College Entrance Examin ation Board. The meetings were called to consider the issues and alternatives in the assessment of writing skills. This assessment is necessary because of the recent-drop nationally in verbal scholastic aptitude (SAT) scores, highly publicized in Time Newsweek and The New York Times. It is likely that a writing sample will be required in the next verbal scholastic aptitude tests.

A note from Dean Cataldo:

During a recent Council meeting, Ron Hayes, President of the Council circulated the following hints. I found them so appropriately centered in human needs and concerns that I thought the readers of the Bulletin might find them interesting too.

SOME RULES AND HINTS FOR TEACHERS AND STUDENTS

Rule one Find a place you trust, then, try trusting it for a while.

Rule two: General duties of a student -- pull everything out of your teacher pull everything out of your fellow student.

Rule three: General duties of a teacher -- pull everything out of your students.

Rule four Consider everything as an experiment.

Rule five: Be self disciplined. This means finding someone wise or smart and choosing to follow them. To be disciplined is to follow a good way. To be self-disciplined is to follow a better way.

Rule six: Mothing is a mistake. There's no win or no fail, there's only make.

Rule seven: The only rule is work. If you work it will lead to something. It's the people who do all of the work all of the time who eventually catch on to things.

Rule eight: Don't try to create and analyze at the same time. They're different processes.

Rule nine Be happy whenever you can manage it. Enjoy yourself. It's lighter than you think.

Rule ten: We're breaking all the rules. Even our own rules. And how do we do that? By leaving plenty of room for X quantities (John Cage)

Hints: Always be around. Come or go to everything. Always go to classes. Read anything you can get your hands on. Look at movies carefully, often. Save everything -- it might come in handy later.
